FROM THE NEW WORLD

BARBARA YAHR, CONDUCTOR
ADELE ANTHONY, VIOLIN

All-Dvořák Program

Slavonic Dance, Op. 46, No. 8

Violin Concerto

Symphony No. 9, "From the New World"

The GVO's 30th season opens with music by our former neighbor Antonin Dvořák. We start with a bucolic Slavonic Dance, welcome back violinist Adele Anthony for the lyrical, dramatic Violin Concerto, and finish with the iconic "New World" Symphony, presented as part of the New York Philharmonic's The New World Initiative.

RUSSIAN ROMANTICS

BARBARA YAHR, CONDUCTOR
IMRI TALGAM, PIANO

Prokofiev Romeo & Juliet (selections from Suites 1 & 2)

Prokofiev Lieutenant Kijé Suite

Rachmaninoff Piano Concerto No. 2

With the passionate balcony scene, the masked ball, and a dramatic duel, Prokofiev's Romeo & Juliet beautifully retells Shakespeare's immortal tale of star-crossed lovers. Rachmaninoff's beloved Second Piano Concerto is just as romantic, featuring Imri Talgam, winner of the 11th International Piano Competition of Orléans. Prokofiev's witty, brass-powered Lieutenant Kijé Suite rounds out the program.
